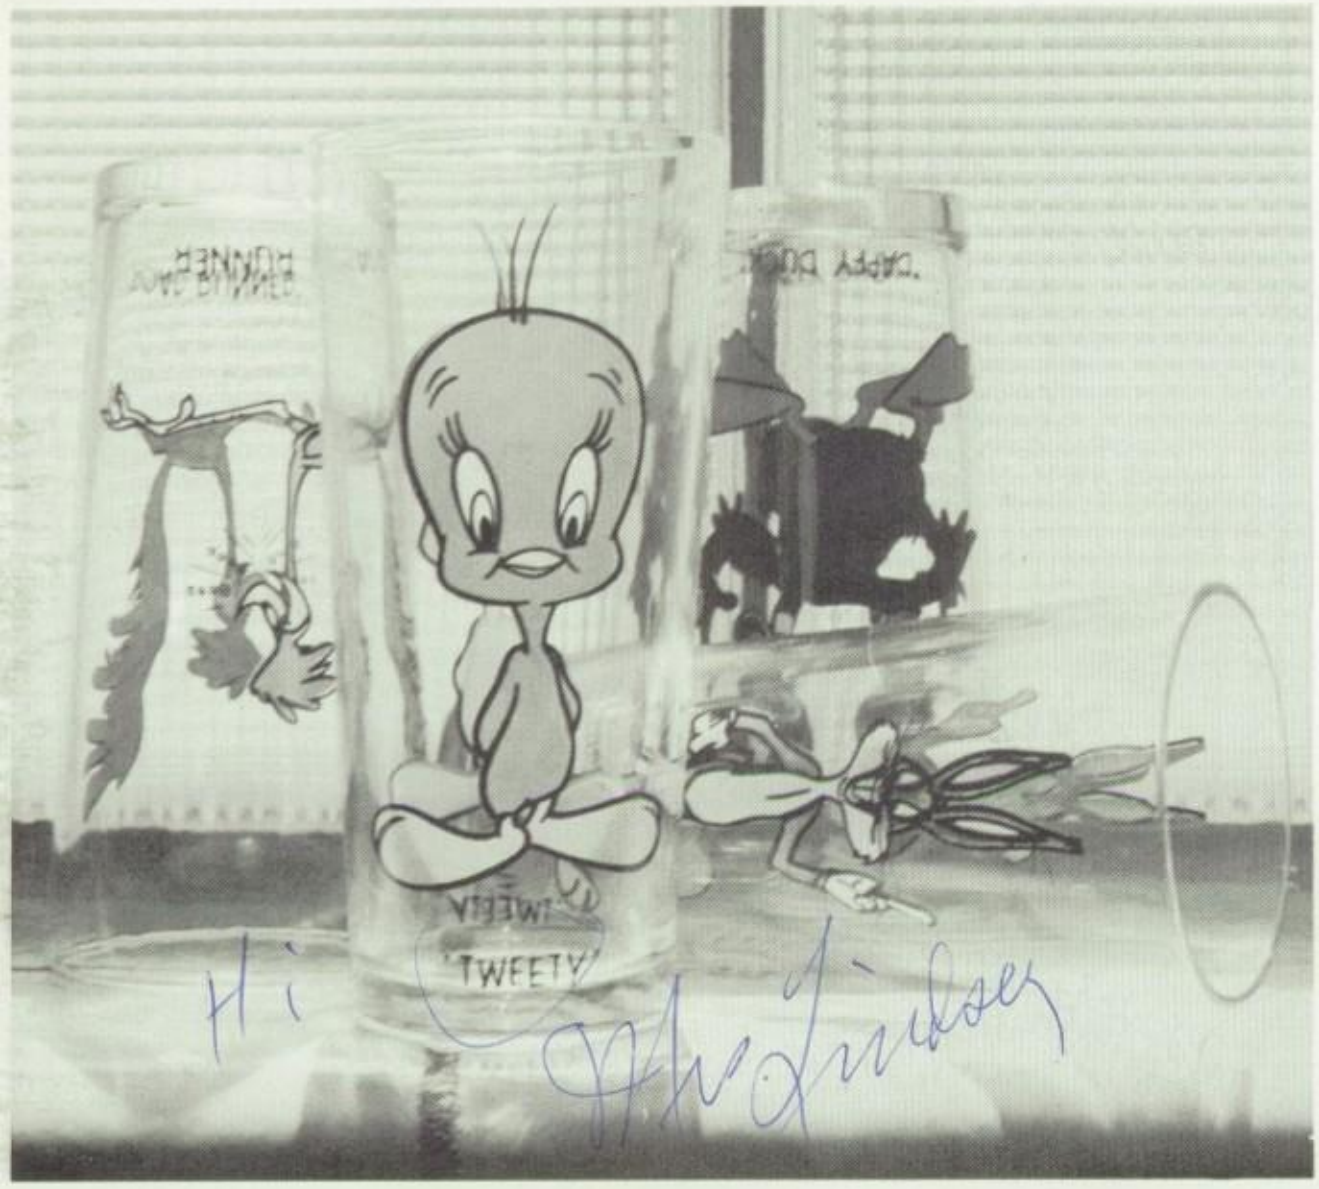
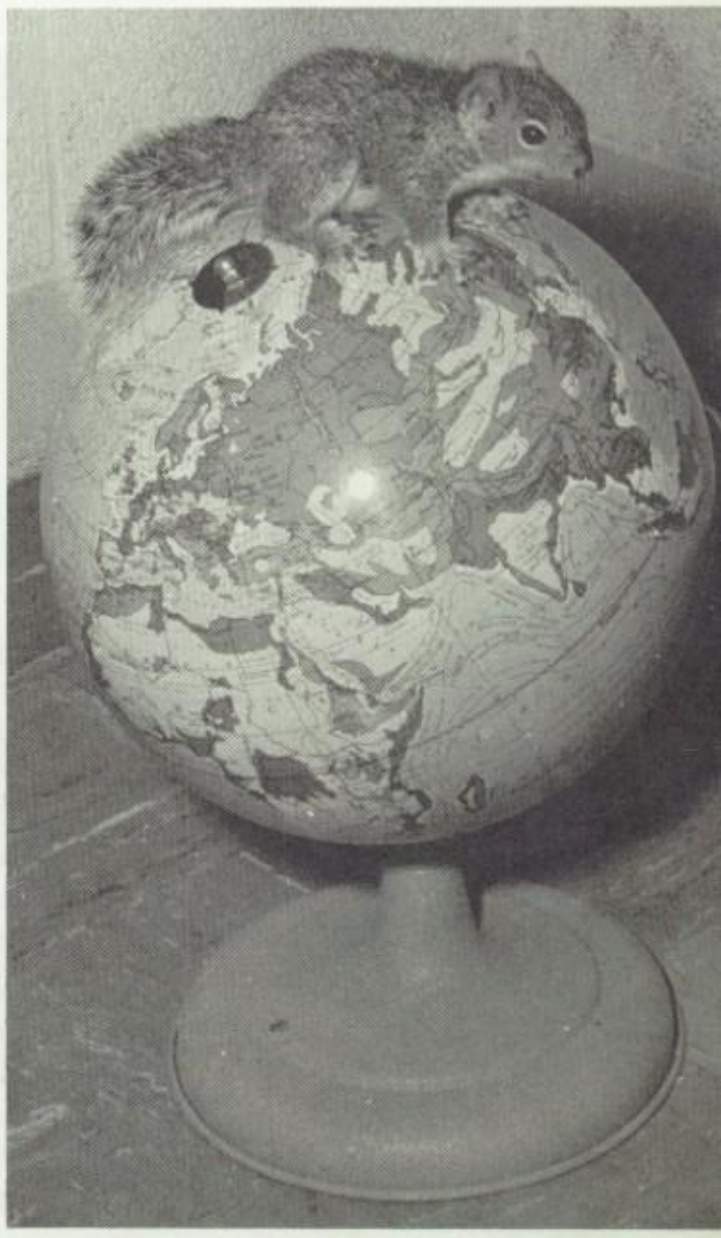
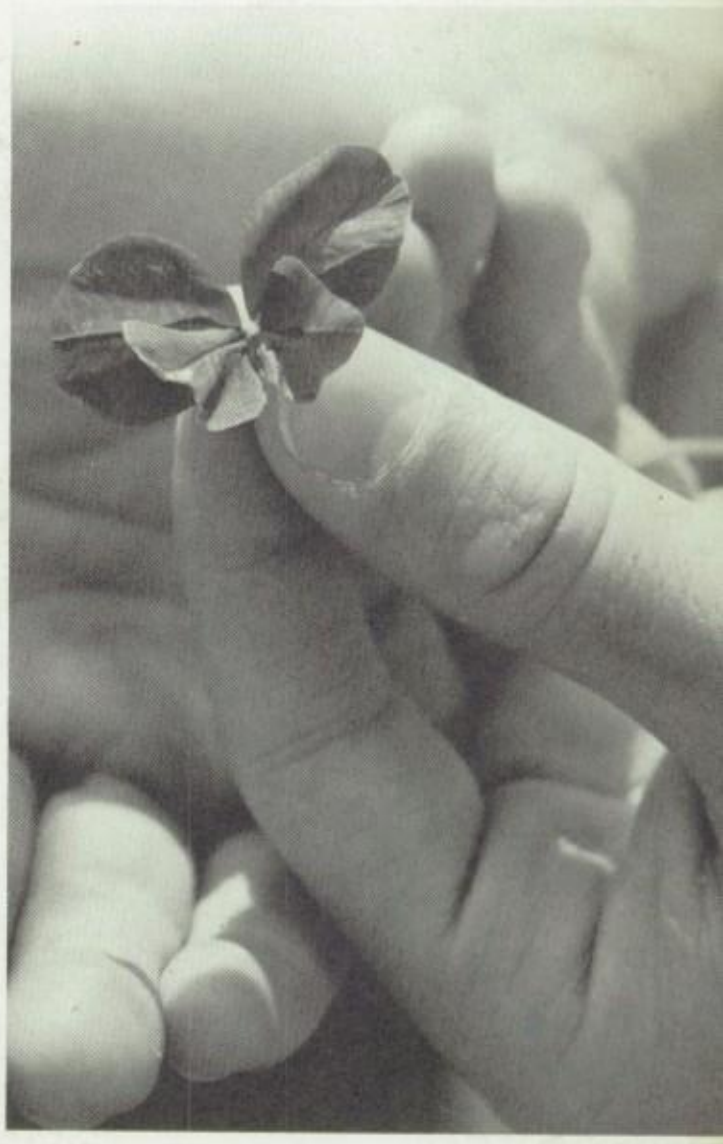
what is life?

life is
... like the color of the sky—always changing
... a pain in the posterior
... a great experience only if you smile
... like a rubber band —very snappy
... having friends always there during your most tragic times
... like a can of beer —fun to some but not to others



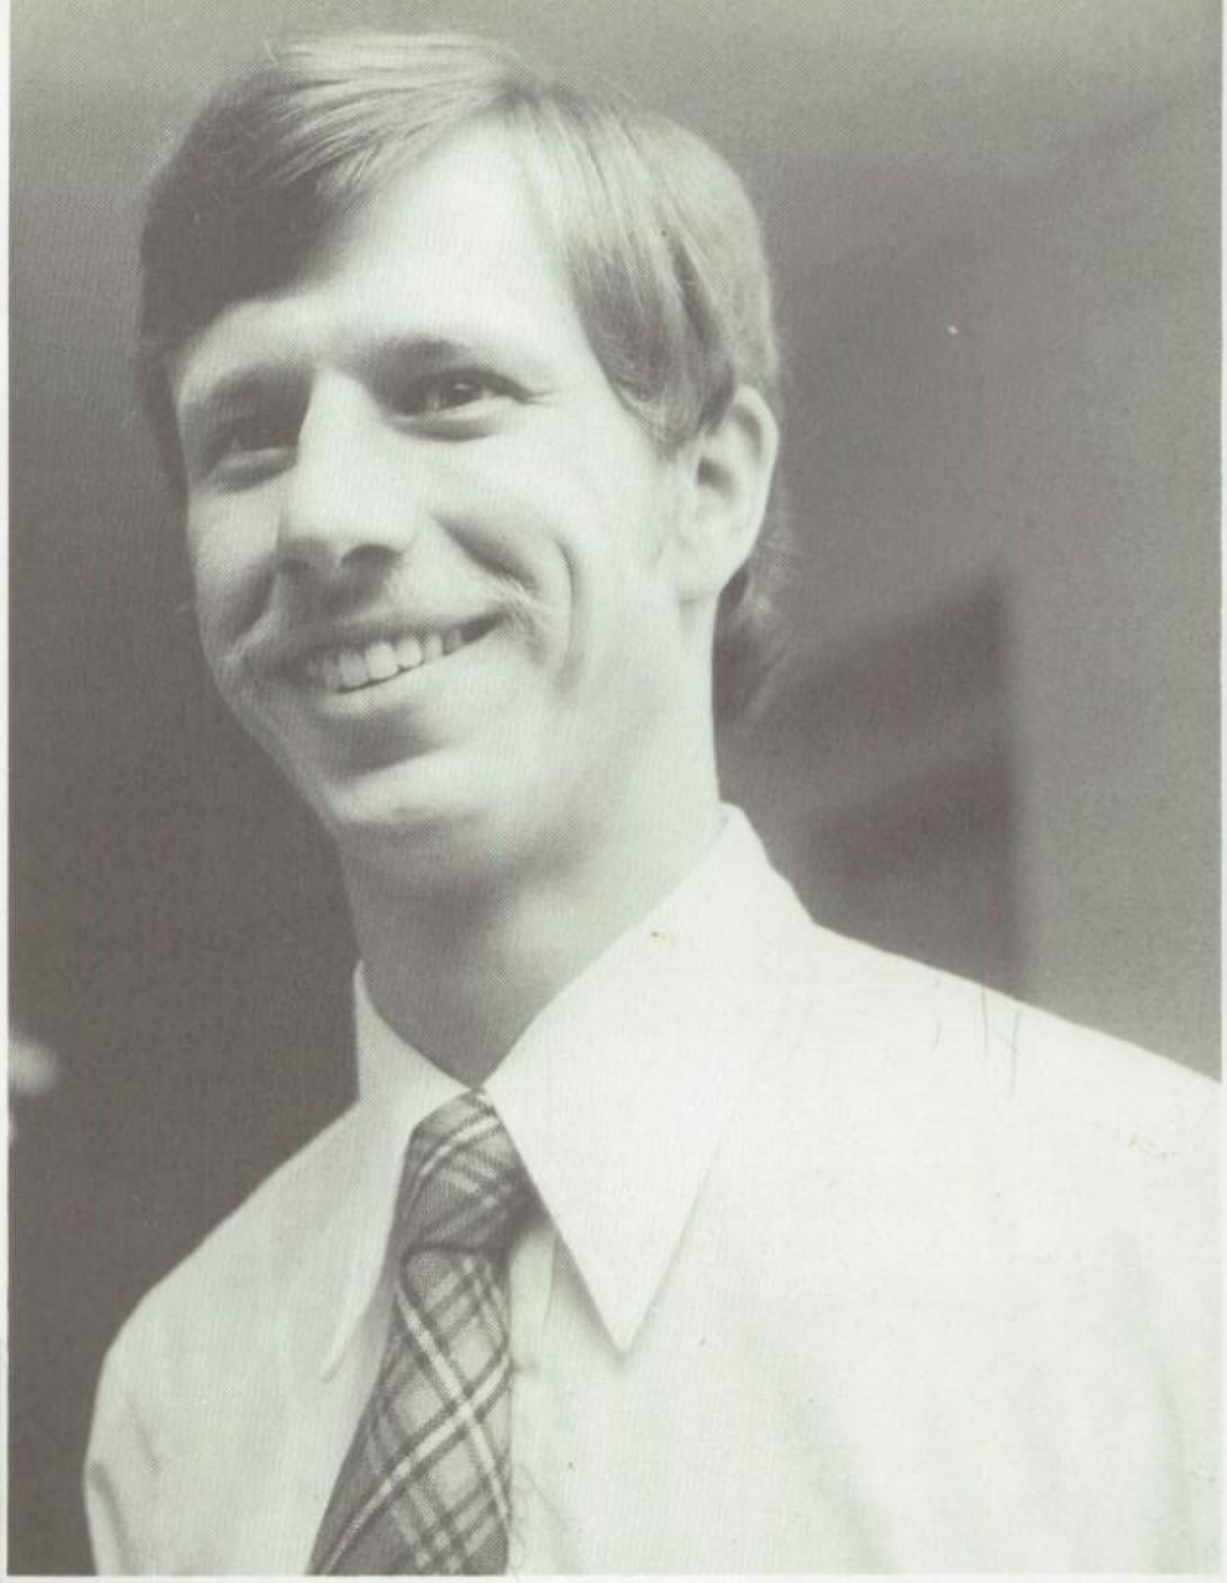
'TWEETY'
Hi

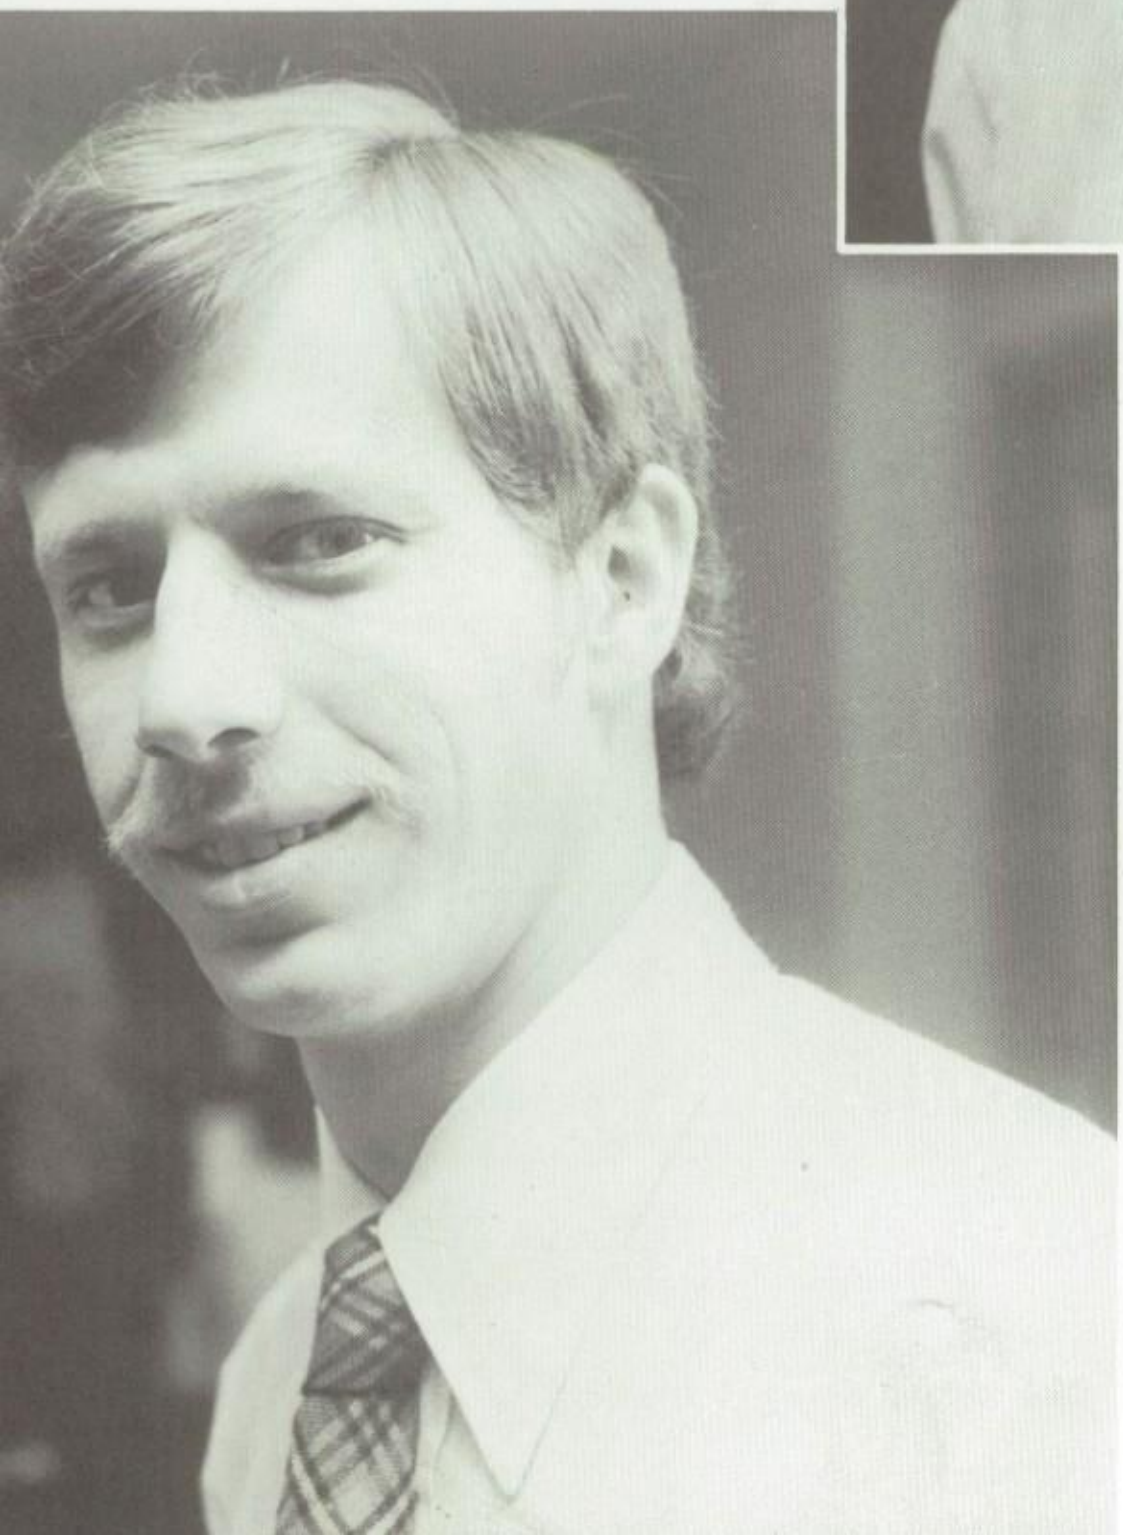




dedication

mr.
lewis
schornstein



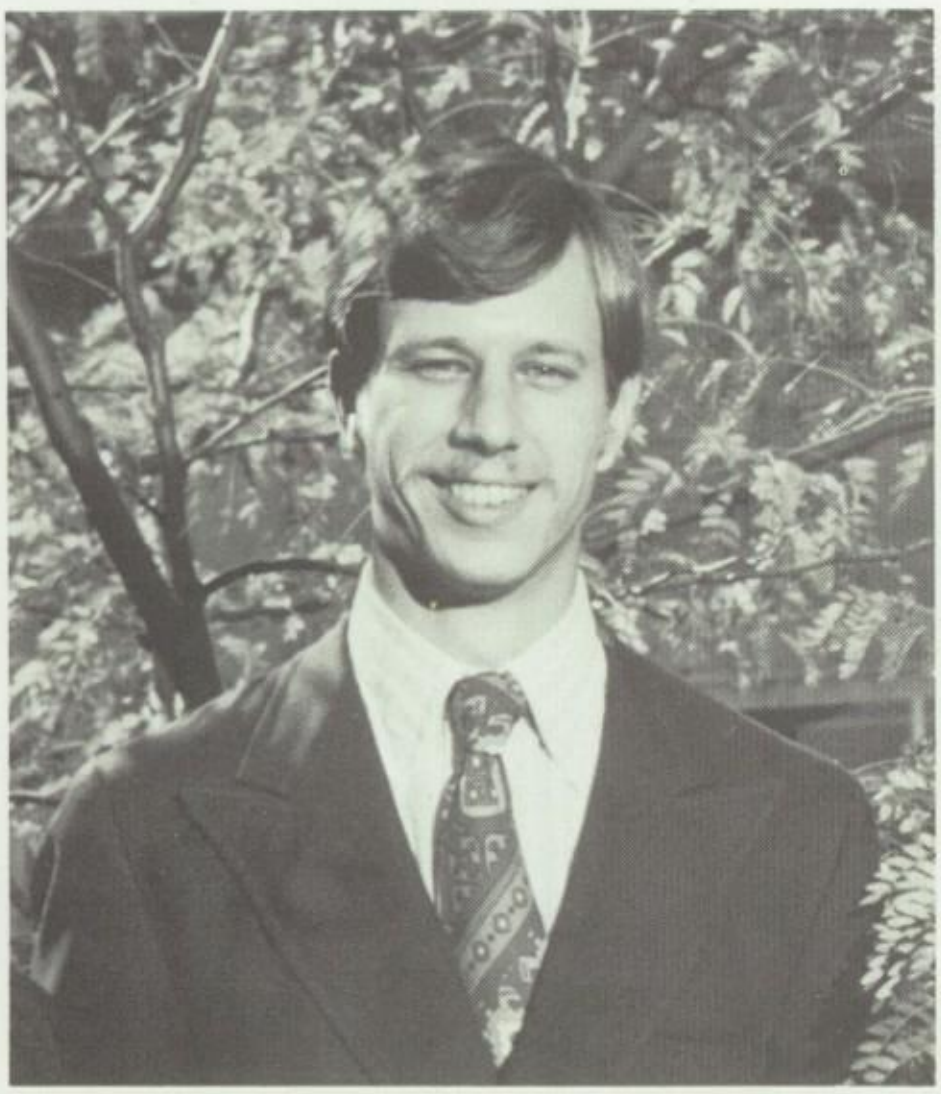


I am a person.
You are a person.
Without you I am
not a person, for
only through you
is language made
possible and only
through language is
thought made possible,
and only through
thought is humaness
made possible.
You have made me
important.

Thomas A. Harris

For this reason and for many more, too numerous to mention, we dedicate our 1975 yearbook, in gratitude, to you Mr. Lewis Schornstein.

a
man
to
remember



"i'd sooner they'd all
follow us
even if its just
to dance and sing
the rest of their lives."

the
happy mood

it's lovely
and it's MINE
and i shall
not expose
it—to the
wind, the
weather or
the world's
comments;
in a green-
edged corner
of my heart
i'll enclose
it, with
mist and
moonbeams...
and it
needn't
make sense!

more than many ways,
here within the time
we spent wondering
what we meant by
living all those years—
by living all those years.

may i say that i have loved me one or two, of the people in my past. fading faces in a waking dream, and though they never seemed to last very long, there are faces i remember — from the places in my past. i said all the dead head miles and the insincere smiles. sometimes i can laugh and cry and i can't remember why but i still love those good times gone by. hold on to them close or let them go. i don't know. i just seem to sing these songs and say i'm sorry for the friends i used to know.

as my life goes on i believe somehow something's changed something deep inside, oh, a part of me there's a strange new light in my eyes things i've never known changing my life - changing me i've been searching for so long
to find an answer
now i know my life has meaning
now i see myself as i am feeling very free, life is everything, oh, it's meant to be

when my days have come to an end
i will have understood
what i've left behind, how to feel searching for an answer to the place where "who am i?"
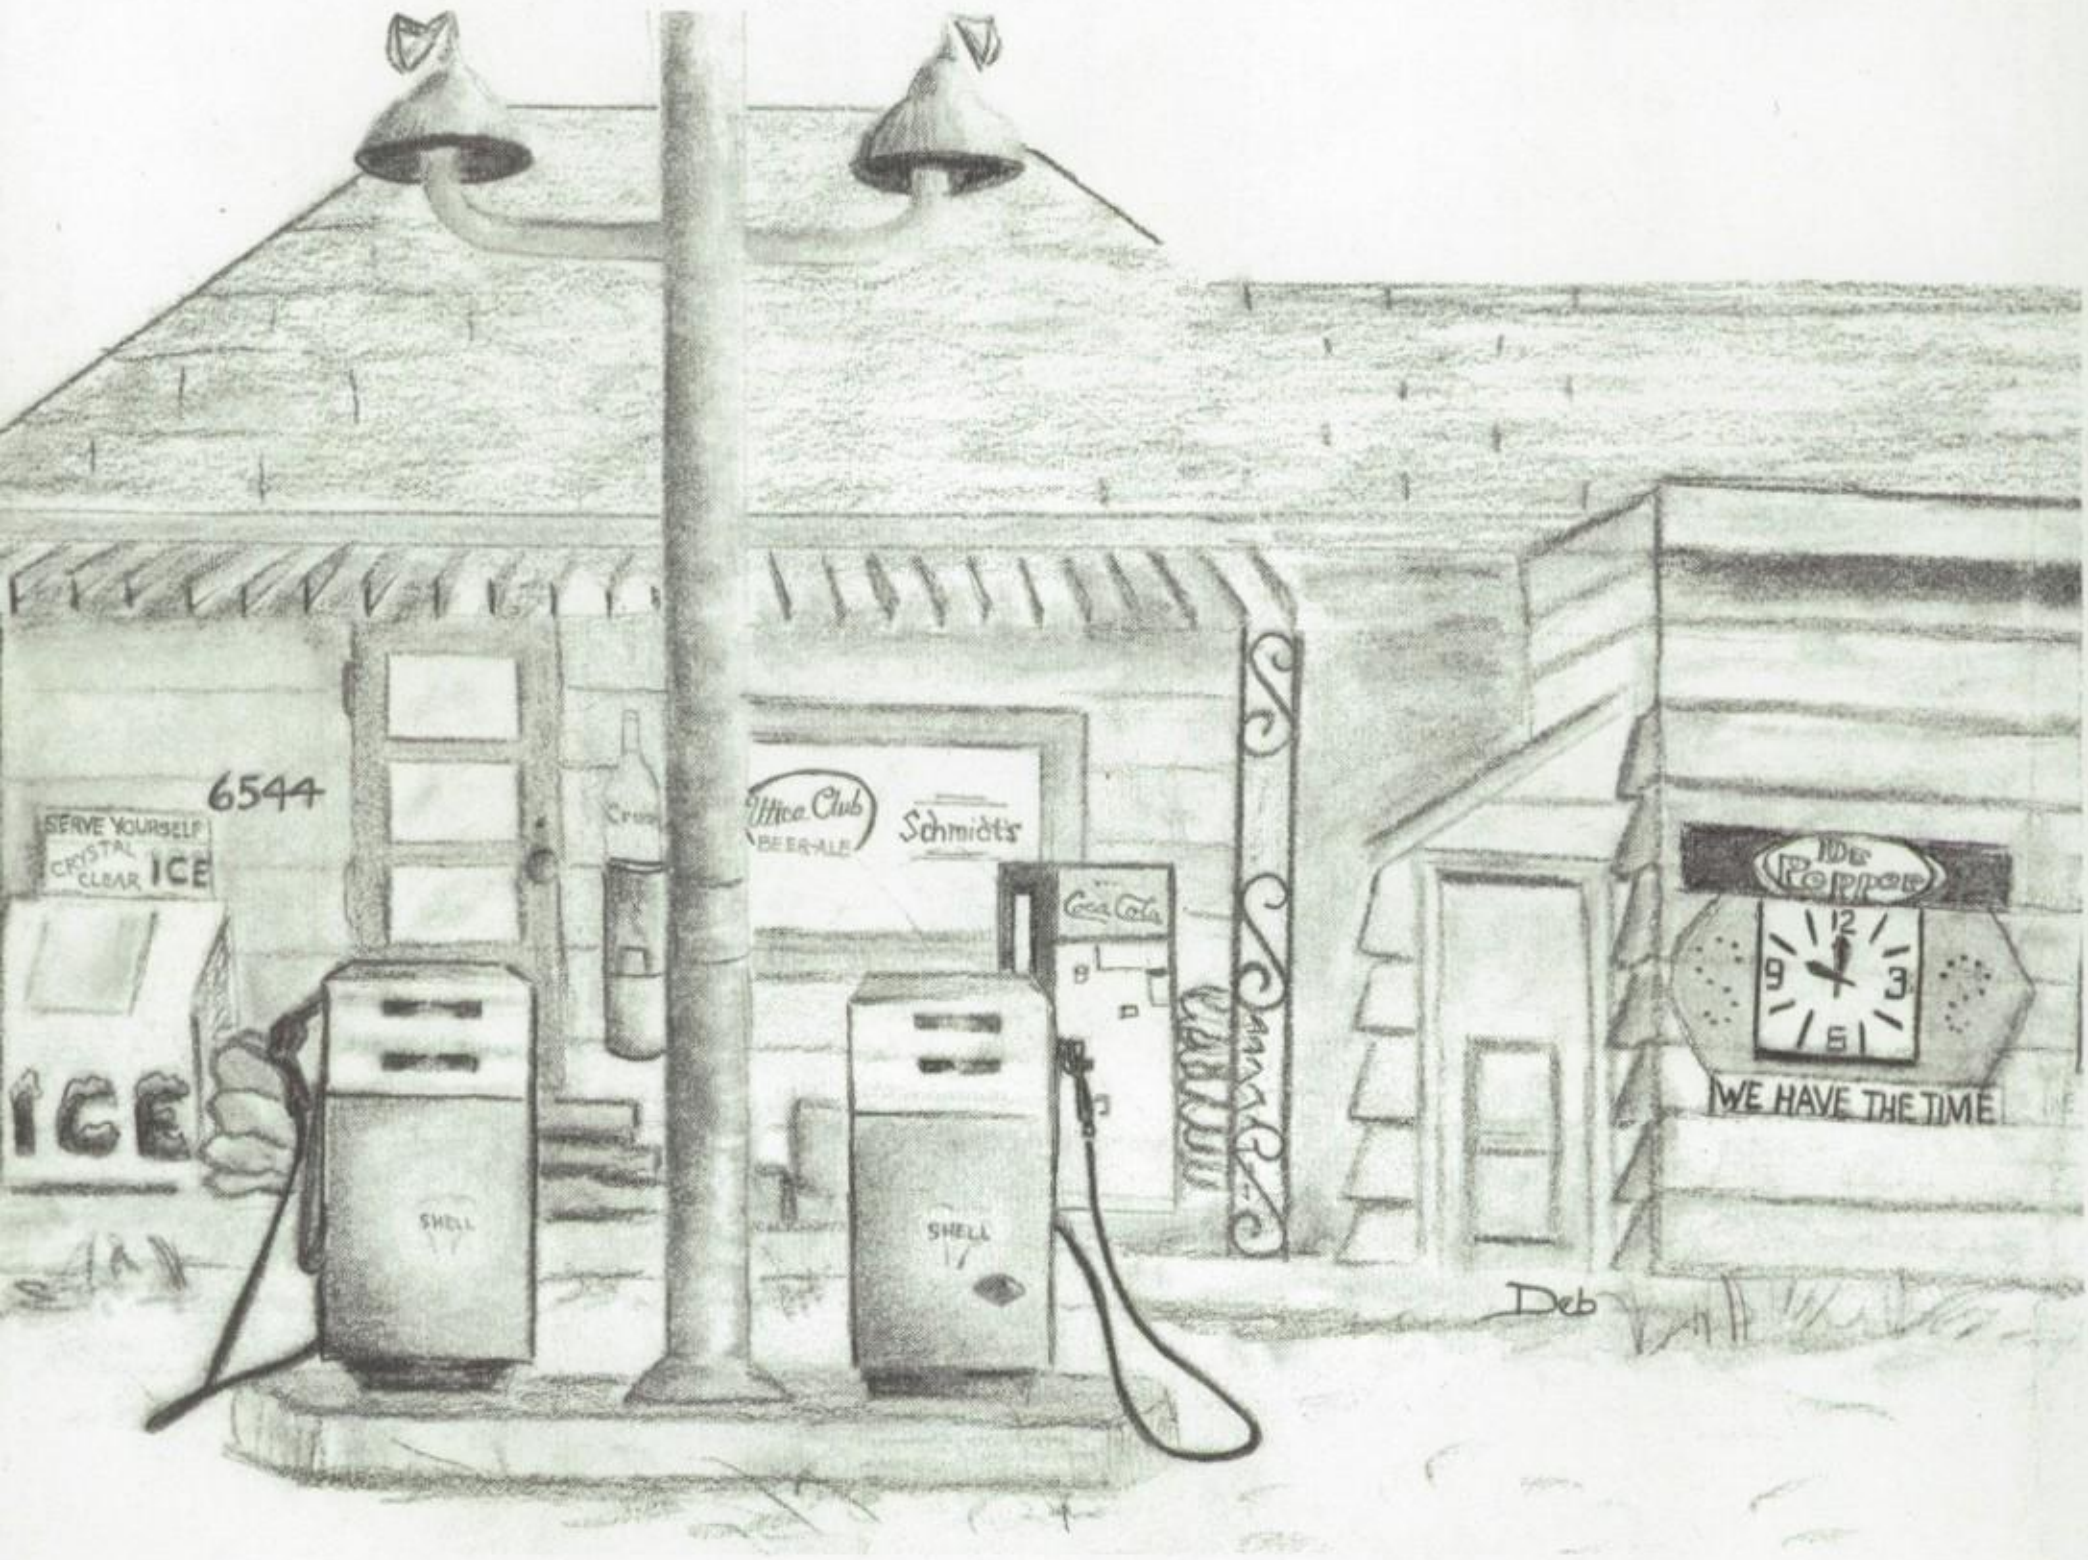
baby, it's only natural
good things in life take a long time
chicago



being lost in the woods for an hour, taking pictures on the school roof, taking off to go to vocational school without a pass, etc. ----well, mr. schornstein, you always took the blame. without you, our crazy ideas would never have come about in the yearbook. thanks so much for always being there when we needed you!

a special thanks goes to margaret and kathy for doing a fantastic job on the ads. the spectacular advertising section could not have been done without the help and patience of valerie swanson. thanks a lot, val. also, a special thanks to deb lubanski for all the fabulous artwork that she let us publish. we can't forget to thank dan runfola for always being there to take pictures. and last but not least, we would like to thank angela leonardo for all her help with the layouts.

1975 is a special year for us, seniors. we hope that his yearbook adds something special to it.

thanks to everyone,
lynn and janice

so often we tend to forget just how much good times and good friends mean to us. there is one person, however, that the senior class of 1975 will never forget—that is why we would like to take this time and space to thank "our father," mr. larry patzwald for everything . . .
